1. Dictation and translation.

Write into your exercise book and translate into Czech:

1. It often freezes. 2. The temperature was below zero yesterday. 3. Why are you in a bad mood? 4. I am not depressed. 5. They like it when it snows. 6. The snow covered hills and mountains. 7. There is slush in the streets. 8. There is ice on the puddles. 9. The days are the shortest in December. 10. It gets dark early.

The key is at the end of the lesson.

2. Fill in so that the text makes sense:

As the name says, popcorn is made of corn - not the complete corn, but only the small kernels Did you know that a corn is made of up to 800 kernels?

The Indians thought that there was a small devil inside the corn which made it pop and jump around. The real reason is the water inside the corn kernel. When the water gets hotter and hotter it makes the kernel explode.

3. Match the questions and the answers to make a dialogue:

1. Hello, Tom, what did you do yesterday?	A. I left at nine o'clock.
2. Oh, did you like it there?	B. I gave her some flowers and a CD with her favourite music. And she offered me something to eat.
3. So, what did you do there?	C. I only drank a bit of Coca-Cola, but it wasn't cold and there was no ice in the freezer.
4. What did you give her?	D. I went to Anna's birthday party.
5. What did you eat there?	E. No, I didn't , actually. There were many people I didn't know.
6. And what did you drink ?	F. Yes, there was Steve, but he is always terribly boring, you can't talk to him.
7. Was there anybody you knew ?	G. I ate some crisps and sandwiches, but they were very salty and not very tasty. I was really thirsty.
8. What time did you go home?	H. I only congratulated Anna on her birthday and gave her a present.
