3. Read. Use your dictionary. Write the new vocabulary into your exercise book.

Then make your own short dialogues:

Tom: Hello Peter. How was your Christmas? Did you get the new skis you wanted?

Peter: Christmas was nice but short, as usual. I got the new skis, we went to the mountains and we had a beautiful time there. And what did you get?

Tom: I got a new PC game, so I played every evening. And my little brother got a big red truck, he liked it very much. He played with it all the time.

Peter: And what about your sister Tina?

Tom: Well, she got a Barbie doll and a playhouse full of furniture. You can imagine how happy she was! She didn't even disturb me with her stupid questions.

The key is at the end of the lesson.

4. True or false?

1. Peter didn't like his Christmas at all. FALSE
2. Tom got new skis. TRUE
3. Peter has a little brother. FALSE
4. Tom has a sister named Tina. TRUE
5. Tina liked her Christmas present very much. TRUE
6. Tom usually disturbs Tina with his stupid questions. FALSE
7. Peter went to the mountains. TRUE

5. Translate:
