Every year in the evening of December 5th we go outside and watch St. Nicholas, the angel and the devil. Then, we go home and wait. Last year, when St. Nicholas arrived, I sang him a song. My sister recited a poem. St. Nicholas and the angel always smile at us. The devil is scary and always frowns. I and my sister were very good the whole year. We were not afraid of the devil. My brother was very naughty. He didn't want to sing or recite any poems. The devil was very angry with him. He gave him a spanking with his broom and rattled his chain at him. I and my sister got a lot of sweets. My brother got only coal and potatoes. He was sad, so we gave him some of our sweets later.
