Who was St. Nicholas?

It's the beginning of December. The sky is dark, the weather is very cold. The wind is blowing hard. Children are in the classroom. Their teacher is coming.

The children shout: "We won't learn anything today. It's St. Nicholas' Day today."

Their teacher smiles: "Do you know who St. Nicholas was?" He asks.

Gary (shouting): "I don't know and I don't care!"

Tom: "Shut up. Do you want to write a test?"

Alice: "He lived a long time ago."

Teacher: "Yes, Alice, you are right. He lived in the 4th century in Asia in a place called Myra. We don't know much about his life. He was an archbishop and he did a lot of good for people, especially for poor people and children. He also performed miracles, for example he revived the dead people. He rescued the people who were drowning, liberated those who were unjustly imprisoned, protected poor people and did many other good deeds. And that's why he became a patron saint of all poor people, especially children. 6th December we commemorate the day of his death."
