Read: "A FIREMAN'S DAY"

Terry King is a fireman. He and other firemen clean their fire-engines every day. One man sits near the telephone. He can answer it quickly, all day and all night.

Sometimes Terry sleeps for a short time at night. There are some beds in a room at the fire station. Terry sleeps there - he wears all his clothes in bed! Firemen can always get to fires very quickly.

The alarm bell is ringing. There is a fire in a big hotel. The firemen are going to fight the fire now! Terry gets up and runs to his fire engine. He puts on his coat and he picks up his yellow helmet.

All the firemen climb into the fire-engine and Terry drives it out of the fire station.

At the hotel, the firemen see some people at the window. They cannot jump down and the fire is getting near them. The firemen put up the long ladders and Terry climbs up to the window. He is going to help the people. They can climb down the ladder.

Now all the people are safe. The firemen are going into the hotel. They must fight the fire.
