Nová gramatika: Souslednost časů v souvětí s vedlejší větou předmětnou

s ostatními spojkami

- posun z přítomnosti do jednoduché minulosti

POZOR!

Slovosled po těchto spojkách je i v tomto případě stejný jako u ostatních předmětných vět.

Vyskytují se například po těchto výrazech:

ASK, WONDER, KNOW, WANT / WOULD LIKE TO KNOW a podobně.

Např:

He asked when you would come.

= Ptal se, kdy přijdete.

She wanted to know how much it cost.

= Chtěla vědět, kolik to stojí.

She wanted to know how much it had cost.

= Chtěla vědět, kolik to stálo.

We wondered where they went.

= Byli jsme zvědaví, kam jdou.

We wondered where they had gone.

= Byli jsme zvědaví, kam šli.

Posun přítomného času do jednoduché minulosti.

On se ptal, kde pracuješ. He asked where you worked.

Oni chtěli vědět, zda máš peníze. They wanted to know if you had money.

3. Translate! Write the English sentences in your exercise book!

1. Nevěděl, kdy mají čas. 2. Ptala se, kde bydlíš. 3. Chtěli vědět, jak dlouho to trvá. 4. Byl zvědav, kolik je jí let. 5. Věděli, jak často se s ním setkáváte.

The key is at the end of the lesson.

Str. 95 / cv. 5: Express your opinion. Tell the other whether you agree with the statement or not, and why.

např.

Men and women can never really be equal.

I think this depends on what aspect of life we are talking about. I definitely agree that men and women should be equal in general, in things that are fundamental to our identity as an individual, like our right to vote or our right to express ourselves freely, and I think we have achieved that. However, there will always be things that are easier and more natural to one gender or the other, whether in personal or professional life, so I think we can say that men and women can never be truly equal in everything.

Str. 95 / cv.: Make your own dialogues.

např.

I would like to reserve a seat on a plane to Rome.

And the date, please?

At the end of November.

Will Friday, November 31st be ok?

Yes, that's all right.
