5. Compare these two pictures!

The key is at the end of the lesson.

Make conditional sentences commenting these situations:

1. Charles always drinks a lot of beer. Then he has problems with the police.
2. Tomorrow we will tell them. They will know everything.
3. I don't have to pay. He pays for everything.

The key is at the end of the lesson.

Str. 143 / cv. 5: Compare these two pictures.

např.

On these two pictures, we can see two very different people with two very different jobs. The first one is a woman who is a doctor, she has a white coat and what looks like a stethoscope around her neck. The other one is a workman, he has a helmet on his head so he could work on some construction or in some kind of a mine. When you look at the pictures, you can also see a big difference in the mood, the woman appears to be very cheerful, while the man has a more serious expression.

Str. 143 / homework: Make conditional sentences commenting these situations.

- 1) Charles always drinks a lot of beer. Then he has problems with the police.
If he didn't drink so much beer, he wouldn't have problems with the police.
- 2) Tomorrow we will tell them. They will know everything.
If we don't tell them tomorrow, they won't know everything.
- 3) I don't have to pay. He pays for everything.
= If he didn't pay for everything, I would have to pay.
