str. 151 / cv.: Here you can see two jumbled letters. One is written to a hotel and the other to a friend. Decide which sentences do with which letter. Put the sentences in the right order.

Letter to a hotel

I would like to make a reservation for the night of 22nd, 23rd, and 24th January.

I would like a single room with a shower.

Could I possibly have a room in the back, as I find the front rooms rather noisy?

I hope the above is convenient.

I have a further request.

As I will be arriving quite late, could you possibly put a cold buffet in my room on the 22nd?

I would be extremely grateful.

I am looking forward to your reply.

Letter to a friend

I am writing you to ask you a favour.

I am coming down to London at the end of the month to go to a conference.

It is 22nd – 24th January.

Could you put me up for a few days?

I do not mind where you put me, I will sleep anywhere.

I hope that is all right.

There is something else I would like to ask you.

Could I have a bite to eat when I arrive?

Just a sandwich will do.

I hope you are all well, and that you have recovered from the busy Christmas period.

Write soon and let me know.
